Charlie Veitch

Charlie Veitch

Semantic Summary

Charles "Charlie" Veitch is a Brazilian-British YouTuber with nearly 850,000 subscribers whose trajectory spans from left-wing anarchist "Love Police" activism and 9/11 truther conspiracy content to right-wing "Broken Britain" political commentary focused on immigration, public disorder, and confrontational auditing. A former investment banker from a background of Brazilian oil wealth, Veitch was the subject of a 2014 BBC Three documentary "That Man With The Megaphone" and later publicly renounced his conspiracy theories after speaking with architects and engineers, triggering backlash from Alex Jones. His current content positions him among the larger UK auditor-adjacent creators, with a focus on Manchester — where he faces bail conditions banning him from the city centre following a Section 4A public order charge — and Nottingham, which he portrayed as a dangerous "hellhole." He collaborates with English Ned (Chris Messenger), appearing in joint videos that frame British cities as sites of immigration-driven decay. His evolution from anarchist prankster to right-wing grievance merchant mirrors a broader pipeline from anti-establishment counterculture to anti-migrant content creation, with his domestic abuse allegations and multiple arrests illustrating the criminal-legal patterns common among figures in the auditor ecosystem.

Platform: YouTube
Category: Right-wing / Sovereignty / Auditor / Political Commentary
Status: Active (with legal restrictions — bail conditions banning him from Manchester city centre)
Real Name: Charles Torres Veitch
Born: 5 August 1980
Age: 45 (as of 2025)
Nationality: Brazilian-British
Location: Park Crescent, Derbyshire (per GMP bail address)
Subscribers: ~845K (YouTube)
Videos: ~2,600

Overview

Charles Veitch is a prominent UK-based YouTuber and former conspiracy theorist who has evolved into a right-wing political commentator and "auditor." With nearly 850,000 subscribers, he is one of the most well-known figures in the UK auditing scene. Veitch documents what he calls "Broken Britain," with particular emphasis on immigration, public order issues, and confrontations with authorities. He has a Wikipedia page and has been featured in mainstream media including BBC Three. He has also been the subject of a Daily Mail feature profiling his transition from investment banker to viral content creator.

Channel: https://www.youtube.com/charlesveitch
Wikipedia: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Charles_Veitch
Daily Mail Feature (2025): https://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-14617841/banker-turned-YouTuber-Brazil-money-provoking-British-public.html

Background

- Former investment banker turned activist; reportedly comes from a background of Brazilian oil wealth
- Early activism (2010): Part of the "Love Police" movement, describing himself as an "absurdist filmmaker"
- Charged with impersonating a police officer in June 2010
- Featured in BBC Three documentary "That Man With The Megaphone" (2014), directed by Mohnish Patel for the BBC Fresh Online project
- Became a prominent 9/11 truther and conspiracy theorist; later publicly renounced those views after speaking with architects, engineers, and victims' relatives for a BBC investigation — leading to backlash from Alex Jones and Infowars
- Shifted to right-wing political commentary and "Broken Britain" content from ~2022 onward

Notable Content

- "Broken Britain" documentation focusing on immigration and public disorder
- Confrontational filming of police, security guards, and government buildings
- Coverage of protests and political events
- Videos on asylum hotels and migrant accommodation
- Frequent focus on Manchester, where he regularly singles out vulnerable people including the homeless and drug addicts, per media reports
- Nottingham content: Profiled by Nottingham Post for portraying the city as a dangerous "hellhole"
- Popular videos include "Aggressive Narco Migrants & Pro Hamas Cosplayers - A New Reality?" (3.7M views)
- "Angry Fake Cop Attacks Me on Public Street" (3.1M views)

Controversies and Legal Issues

- December 2025 arrest: Arrested on 24 December 2025 after an allegation was made against him
- February 2026 charges: Charged with a Section 4A public order offence by Greater Manchester Police
- Bail conditions: Banned from entering Manchester city centre inside the ring road; set to appear at Manchester Magistrates' Court on 30 June 2026
- Domestic abuse allegations: Listed on Red Rose UK as a domestic abuser; ex-partner alleges she experienced severe emotional abuse and physical assault for which Veitch pleaded guilty and faced legal consequences. Multiple women have come forward with allegations of manipulation and abusive behaviour
- Trafford Centre incident: Alleged to have attacked a couple (who were with their child) at the Trafford Centre; featured in a Daily Mail article about a father who attacked Veitch inside the mall and was found guilty of common assault
- Public order offences: Multiple arrests and charges throughout his career
- 2015 fine: Fined after clash with BNP supporters at a cuts protest (Manchester Evening News)
- Royal wedding incident: Masked anarchists (including Veitch) thwarted by police
- Nelson statue controversy: Criticized the Nelson monument in a YouTube video (Lancashire Telegraph)
- Harassment allegations: Reddit users report him filming ambulances and confronting families during emergencies

Media Coverage

- Wikipedia article with detailed biography
- BBC Three profile / "That Man With The Megaphone" documentary (2014)
- Daily Mail (2025): Feature profile on his transition from banker to YouTuber
- Lancashire Telegraph coverage
- Manchester Evening News: Multiple articles including "Charles Veitch charged with public order offence"
- Prolific North (February 2026): "Controversial YouTuber Charlie Veitch charged with public order offence and banned from Manchester City Centre"
- Nottingham Post (2025): "The YouTubers telling the world Nottingham is a dangerous and violent 'hellhole'"
- Red Rose UK: Listed on domestic abuse database
- GMP press release (February 2026): Official statement regarding the charges
- Multiple Reddit discussions on r/manchester, r/unitedkingdom, and r/AskUK

Political Lean

Veitch has evolved from left-wing anarchist activism (2010s) to right-wing political commentary (2020s). His current content focuses on anti-immigration themes, criticism of government policy, and "law and order" messaging. He positions himself as a citizen journalist and free speech advocate.

Links

- YouTube: https://www.youtube.com/charlesveitch
- Wikipedia: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Charles_Veitch
- Daily Mail feature: https://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-14617841/banker-turned-YouTuber-Brazil-money-provoking-British-public.html
- GMP press release: https://www.gmp.police.uk/news/greater-manchester/news/news/2026/february/man-charged-following-public-order-incident-in-city-centre/
- Other socials: Active on X (Twitter), TikTok

Known Associations

Auto-generated from cross-references in this archive.

- Fred Willis — 24 mentions
- EnglishNed — 5 mentions · tagged
- Edge of the Matrix — 2 mentions
- English Ned — 2 mentions
- Jupiter Ascending — 2 mentions
- UK Auditor — 1 mention

Tags

- anti-immigration
- auditor
- channel
- charlie-veitch
- commentator
- content-creator
- cultural-figure
- english-ned
- englishned
- free-speech
- north-west
- person
- sovereignty
- tiktok

- twitter
- youtube

Created: 11 June 2026
Last updated: 11 June 2026

Revision #1
Created 2026-08-21 12:00:17 UTC by Admin
Updated 2026-08-21 12:00:17 UTC by Admin