Overview

Turbo operates as a YouTube auditor, conducting the typical "auditing" activity of filming in public spaces, government buildings, police stations, and at protests — a practice widely documented in the UK by Searchlight Magazine and HOPE not hate. His distinguishing feature within the auditor network is his connection to Billy Moore, who provides support.

Billy Moore is a known figure within the far-right/auditor ecosystem. The nature of Moore's support for Turbo — whether financial, promotional, logistical, or protective — is not specified in available sources, but the relationship indicates Turbo is networked within the structured auditor community rather than operating independently.

Content Style

- Standard auditing content (public filming, confrontation with officials/police)
- Likely amplified by Billy Moore's network
