

Adam Price — Former Plaid Cymru Leader ????????

Adam Price — Former Plaid Cymru Leader ????????

Detail	Info
Full name	Adam Price
Role	Former Leader of Plaid Cymru (2018-2023), MS for Carmarthen East and Dinefwr
Born	23 September 1968
Education	Cardiff University, Harvard Kennedy School
Previous career	Researcher, founded Plaid's policy unit

Celtic Alliance Position

Most prominent advocate. Adam Price is arguably the most significant figure to have called for a formal Celtic Union. In January 2019, while Plaid Cymru leader, he proposed:

- A Celtic Development Bank to finance infrastructure projects across Celtic nations
- A formal Celtic Union structured using the Good Friday Agreement framework
- Enhanced economic and political integration between Ireland, Scotland, and Wales

His proposal was covered by RTÉ, The National, and international media. He argued that Celtic nations share common interests in social democracy, EU orientation, and countering Westminster centralisation.

Sources

- RTÉ — Welsh party leader calls for Celtic political union \(Jan 2019\)
- The National — Adam Price: Scotland and Wales must form Celtic Union

- Wikipedia — Adam Price
-

Revision #1

Created 2026-08-21 11:42:04 UTC by Admin

Updated 2026-08-21 11:42:04 UTC by Admin