Authors

Daily Mirror

- Tom Pettifor — cover story byline Bio: Tom Pettifor is the Daily Mirror's Crime Editor (long-time Crime Correspondent), covering crime, courts and investigations. He began his career in 2001 as a reporter on the Hackney Gazette, is co-author with Nick Sommerlad of One Last Job (Mirror Books, 2016) on Hatton Garden ringleader Brian Reader, writer/presenter of the "Stealing Victory" podcast and executive producer of Channel 4's "Who Stole the World Cup?". He won Online Video Journalism at the British Journalism Awards 2024 and is shortlisted for Social Media Journalist of the Year at the 2026 Media Freedom Awards. Controversies: None found in public-record searches — no IPSO ruling, correction or scandal naming him (IPSO's own site search returns no pages mentioning "Pettifor"). Matter-of-record: as the Mirror's crime correspondent he gave evidence to the Leveson Inquiry on 20 March 2012, answering questions on the relationship between the press and the police (via the Crime Reporters Association) and on expenses procedures at the Mirror. Sources: Tom Pettifor — Daily Mirror author profile, Tom Pettifor — Discover Leveson witness record, British Journalism Awards 2024 winners — Press Gazette, Media Freedom Awards 2026 shortlist — HoldTheFrontPage, Tom Pettifor on Muck Rack

Daily Star
