Authors

⚠ Extractor note (08 Sep 2026): `extract_bylines` only caught the Express byline. Vision re-check of all three covers found the Mirror ran "BY JEREMY ARMSTRONG AND TOM PETTIFOR" (main story inset) and the Star ran "by ANDREW JAMESON" (bottom-right under the Bernie Ecclestone story) — both missed by the extractor, added manually below.

Daily Express

- Michael Knowles — Home Affairs Editor (cover story byline) Bio: Home Affairs and Defence Editor of the Daily Express, specialising in immigration, people smuggling, organised crime, terrorism, intelligence, policing and defence, and a regular writer on the Channel migration crisis. Shortlisted for the 2020 Cudlipp Award for his investigation into child trafficking in Afghanistan. Joined the Express as a reporter in July 2016 after two years at the Watford Observer; has appeared on LBC. Controversies: None found in public-record searches — no IPSO rulings or corrections specific to him surfaced. (Search results for the unrelated American Daily Wire pundit Michael Knowles were discarded as a name mismatch.) Sources: Express journalist profile

Daily Mirror

- Jeremy Armstrong — co-byline on main story (BY JEREMY ARMSTRONG AND TOM PETTIFOR) Bio: Daily Mirror journalist — Press Gazette has described him as the paper's North East correspondent — whose reporting covers crime, investigations and major national stories (today's Portsmouth RNLI/migrant protest front page with Tom Pettifor; recent A66 crash and Middlesbrough gang-violence coverage). Educated at Royal Holloway, University of London; on X as @jeremyatmirror. Controversies: None found in public-record searches — no IPSO rulings or corrections against him surfaced. Notable press-freedom case (he was the subject, not the accused): Press Gazette reported in Jan 2017 that Cleveland Police had twice used anti-terror powers to obtain his phone records during a leak inquiry into a matter that was never a criminal offence. Sources: Mirror author page, Press Gazette, LinkedIn
- Tom Pettifor — co-byline on main story (BY JEREMY ARMSTRONG AND TOM PETTIFOR) Bio: Daily Mirror Crime Editor (topic expertise: crime, court and investigations). Co-author of the book One Last Job, writer/presenter of the "Stealing Victory" podcast, and executive producer of Channel 4's Who Stole the World Cup?; a two-time British Journalism Awards nominee. Controversies: None found in public-record searches — no IPSO rulings or corrections specific to him surfaced. Sources: Mirror author page, Stealing Victory podcast (Apple)

Daily Star

- Andrew Jameson — main story byline (by ANDREW JAMESON) Bio: News Editor of the Daily Star across print and digital, based in London; joined the Star in 2016 after local journalism at the Croydon Advertiser, Sevenoaks Chronicle and Kent Live. Covers showbiz, politics, sport and food-and-drink among other beats, and writes the Star's "Andy Burns 'Em" guest column. Studied at the University of Leeds. Controversies: None found in public-record searches — no IPSO rulings or corrections specific to him surfaced.
