After living with MND for 12 years, Phil Newby makes a plea to the Prime Minister

'LET'S TALK ABOUT ASSISTED DYING, MR BURNHAM...WHILE I STILL CAN'

EXCLUSIVE
BY HANNA GEISSLER
Health Editor

TERMINALLY ill dad Phil Newby has asked the Prime Minister to meet him to talk about assisted dying — while Phil still can.

Phil was diagnosed with motor neurone disease 12 years ago and is becoming paralysed.

He has campaigned for assisted dying for seven years, even taking his case to the High Court and Court of Appeal. The same
