Number of foreign crooks due to be kicked out of Britain rises under Labour

21,294 CRIMINALS WHO SHOULD BE DEPORTED STILL ON STREETS

BY MICHAEL KNOWLES
Home Affairs Editor

A RECORD 21,294 foreign criminals are roaming the streets as the deportation crisis worsens under Labour.

The number of crooks in the community has grown by 1,000 in just three months and means the total figure has more than doubled since the end of 2020.

Meanwhile, fewer than 10,000 Channel arrivals have been removed since the problem began in 2018.

Reform's Zia Yusuf said figures "show the invasion of Britain continues under
