Bio

Detail	Info
Full name	Hughie Stirling
Age	68
Home town	Ullapool, Scotland
Occupation	Humanitarian activist
Previous activism	Palestine solidarity, Free Gaza Movement

Detention Account

Hughie Stirling was on the Global Sumud Flotilla when it was intercepted by the Israeli Navy in international waters. He gave detailed accounts of his treatment:

- "They were ripping my jacket off and punching me and kicking me" — quoted by @ScotNational (The National)
- Described the "excruciating pain" of his treatment
- Reports being "kidnapped" by Israeli occupation forces
- Described being handcuffed, blindfolded, forced to kneel on the deck
- Taken to a holding facility, questioned, accused of supporting Hamas
- Deported and flew home via Bilbao, Spain

He is described by Scottish media as an "elderly Scottish humanitarian."

A second elderly Scottish activist was also detained alongside Stirling on the flotilla, though their identity has not been as widely reported.

Media Coverage

- The National (Scotland) — multiple articles covering his arrival home and testimony
 - Sky News — quoted in coverage of the flotilla interception
 - Middle East Eye — firsthand account of the raid and detention
 - Al Jazeera — cited as a primary source on activist treatment

Hughie Stirling's age (68) and Scottish identity bring a direct UK dimension to the Sumud Flotilla story. His treatment — an elderly humanitarian beaten by Israeli forces — is likely to generate significant media and parliamentary pressure, particularly from Scottish MPs and the SNP.

Meriem Hadjal — French Activist

Meriem Hadjal — Global Sumud Flotilla Activist

Last updated: 28 May 2026 (companion date sync)

Bio

Detail	Info
Full name	Meriem Hadjal
Age	Not confirmed
Nationality	French
Occupation	Activist / humanitarian
Organisation	Global Sumud Flotilla participant

Detention Account — Sexual Assault Allegations

Meriem Hadjal gave harrowing testimony about her detention by Israeli forces after the flotilla was intercepted:

- Stripped of warm clothing by Israeli soldiers
- Taken individually into a dark shipping container during detention
- Repeatedly groped while in the container
- Testified she was "tortured and sexually assaulted by 3 Israeli soldiers" on the prison boat
- Described the soldiers' behaviour as having "a sadism" (Drop Site News interview)

Her testimony is some of the most detailed and disturbing to emerge from the Sumud Flotilla interception.

Media Coverage

- Drop Site News — published video interview (24 May): "There's a sadism" — detailed testimony of sexual assault
 - franceinfo — French national media coverage (23 May), reporting the testimony
 - @QudsNen — French-language coverage: "Témoignage bouleversant" (heartbreaking testimony)
 - @CaronAymericoff — "Glacant" (chilling), calling Israeli soldiers "a horde of rapists"

Reddit Discussion

No dedicated Reddit threads found for Meriem Hadjal specifically (25 May 2026). Her testimony is referenced within broader Sumud Flotilla threads on r/europes, r/worldnews, and r/LateStageCapitalism.

What It Means

Meriem Hadjal's sexual assault allegations represent a significant escalation in the Sumud Flotilla story. If verified, these would constitute grave violations of international law. The French government — which has played an active role in Middle East diplomacy — may face domestic pressure to respond.

Ebrahim Peters — Global Sumud Flotilla Activist

Last updated: 28 May 2026 (companion date sync)

Bio

Detail	Info
Full name	Ebrahim Peters
Age	Not confirmed
Nationality	South African
Occupation	Activist
Organisation	Global Sumud Flotilla participant

Detention Account — Torture Claims

Ebrahim Peters says Israeli forces tortured him specifically because of his South African nationality, linking his abuse directly to South Africa's ICJ genocide case against Israel.

Key details:

- Claims Israeli interrogators referenced South Africa's legal action against Israel at the International Court of Justice
- Says the torture was nationality-based — treated more harshly because of where he comes from
- Implies a punitive element: South Africa's ICJ case (which found it "plausible" Israel was committing genocide in Gaza) led to him being a target

- The claim creates a direct link between international legal action and personal reprisal

 - Featured in the r/southafrica Reddit thread with 143 points and 13 comments — the highest-engagement Sumud Flotilla Reddit thread found

- r/southafrica (143pts, 13cmts) — "Ebrahim Peters, a South African activist of the Gaza-bound Global Sumud Flotilla, says Israeli forces tortured him because of his nationality, linking the abuse to South Africa's ICJ case against Israel." — most popular Sumud Flotilla thread found on Reddit.

What It Means

Ebrahim Peters' case is politically significant because:

1. It directly connects the flotilla interception to the ICJ genocide case — Israel allegedly torturing a South African activist because of that country's legal action
 2. South Africa has been the most prominent state actor pursuing the genocide case — a torture claim against one of its citizens escalates the bilateral dimension
 3. The South African government faces domestic pressure to respond, potentially strengthening diplomatic action against Israel

Zohar Chamberlain Regev — Israeli-Born Activist

Zohar Chamberlain Regev — Global Sumud Flotilla Activist

Last updated: 28 May 2026 — confirmed still detained. No release news found in latest search.

Status: REPORTEDLY STILL DETAINED BY ISRAEL — only flotilla activist not released

Bio

Detail	Info
Full name	Zohar Chamberlain Regev
Age	54
Born	Israel, 1971 or 1972
Background	Jewish, born in Israel. Converted to Islam later in life.
Home	Lived near Nazareth (Kfar H— settlement / village area)
Current status	Still in Israeli detention as of 25 May 2026 — reportedly the only Sumud Flotilla activist Israel has refused to release

Who She Is

Zohar Chamberlain Regev is an Israeli-born Jewish woman who converted to Islam — the only activist from the Global Sumud Flotilla that Israel has refused to release as of 25 May 2026.

Her reported quote, from Nitter sources:

"As a human being, but also as an Israeli of Jewish origin, I am horrified by what Israel is doing in Palestine in general and in Gaza in particular. We were always told: 'How could the world remain silent during the Holocaust?'"

This quote suggests she joined the flotilla driven by her Jewish identity and the moral lessons of the Holocaust — a powerful framing.

Why She's Still Detained

Israel's refusal to release her while deporting all other foreign activists suggests:

1. Her Israeli citizenship (by birth) gives Israel legal jurisdiction to hold her
2. Her conversion to Islam may be seen as an aggravating factor by Israeli authorities
3. "Treason" framing — an Israeli-born Jew participating in an anti-blockade flotilla is treated more harshly than foreign nationals
4. She may face criminal charges under Israeli law, unlike foreign activists who were simply deported

Media Coverage

- r/LateStageCapitalism (10pts) — "The interesting and inspiring story of Zohar Chamberlain Regev, an Israeli-born Jew who later converted to Islam and was part of the illegally intercepted flotilla."
- Turkish media (MASAOMORITR, umradil, HilfullFudul) — significant Turkish-language coverage amplifying her story
- Spanish-language media — @MTombesi3 posted "La única activista de la Flotilla Sumud que sigue presa es una mujer judía convertida al Islam"

Twitter/X Discussion

“ Source: Nitter search, 25 May 2026

- @umradil (Turkish) — "The only activist Israel refuses to release is Zohar Regev Chamberlain.... Zohar, born 54 years ago in Israel to a Jewish family. Near Nazareth, Kfar H—"

- @MASAOMORITR (Turkish) — Quoted her: "As a human being, but also as an Israeli of Jewish origin, I am horrified..." (published in German/Turkish)
 - @HilfullFudul (Turkish) — "The only 'Resistance Flotilla' activist Israel refuses to release: Zohar Regev Chamberlain"
 - @MTombesi3 (Spanish) — "The only Sumud Flotilla activist still imprisoned is a Jewish woman who converted to Islam"

What It Means

Zohar's case is the most symbolically charged of all the flotilla activists:

1. Jewish activist detained by Israel — undermines Israel's claim to represent all Jews
 2. Convert to Islam — touches on Israel's anxieties about Jewish emigration and conversion
 3. Held longer than any other activist — suggests punitive treatment beyond standard deportation
 4. Holocaust framing ("How could the world remain silent?") — powerful moral comparison
 5. diplomatic leverage — her continued detention could become a rallying cause for Jewish diaspora groups critical of Israel

Daniela Maria Bonamico — Canadian Activist

Daniela Maria Bonamico — Global Sumud Flotilla Activist

Last updated: 28 May 2026 (companion date sync) Status: Released and returned to Canada

Bio

Detail	Info
Full name	Daniela Maria Bonamico
Age	Not confirmed
Nationality	Canadian
Occupation	Activist
Organisation	Canadian Boat to Gaza / Global Sumud Flotilla participant

Detention & Return

Daniela Maria Bonamico was on the Global Sumud Flotilla when intercepted by the Israeli Navy. She was detained by Israeli forces and subjected to what has been described as "illegal detention and torture" by activist accounts.

Upon her return to Canada, she arrived at Toronto Pearson Airport to a large crowd of supporters who turned out to welcome her home.

Twitter/X Discussion

Source: Nitter search, 25 May 2026

- @nurdogandiyorki — "Another participant in the Canadian Global Sumud Flotilla, Daniela Maria Bonamico, has arrived in Toronto after Israel illegally detained and tortured activists. Look at the crowd at Pearson Airport in Toronto."
- @Partisan_12 (from earlier research) — Similar coverage of her arrival and the crowd welcome

Note: Only one tweet found in Nitter search with her full name. She may be more active under a shortened name or alternate handle.

Canadian Government Response

As of 25 May 2026, no official Canadian government statement specifically addressing Daniela Maria Bonamico's detention has been found in the search results. The crowd at Pearson Airport suggests significant grassroots support, which may lead to parliamentary questions or government action.

What It Means

Daniela Maria Bonamico's case adds a Canadian dimension to the Sumud Flotilla story:

1. Canada has historically been more cautious on Israel-Palestine than some European nations — public pressure from Pearson Airport crowds may shift that
2. The "torture" claims (per activist accounts) could trigger formal Canadian government protests
3. Canada's Jewish diaspora is significant — the story may gain traction depending on how it's framed

Alex Colston — Zeteo Contributor & Activist

Alex Colston — Global Sumud Flotilla Activist / Zeteo Contributor

Last updated: 25 May 2026 (evening)

Bio

Detail	Info
Full name	Alex Colston
Role	Contributor to Zeteo (independent investigative journalism platform)
Previous activism	Journalistic coverage of Palestine solidarity

Detention Account

Alex Colston was on the Global Sumud Flotilla as a journalist/contributor for Zeteo when it was intercepted by the Israeli Navy. Their testimony has been widely shared:

- "I just blacked out. I couldn't handle it. It was so painful." — describing the treatment during detention
 - Reports being among those detained by Israeli forces during the interception
 - Their testimony adds a journalism-focused dimension to the abuse allegations

Media Coverage

- Zeteo — independent journalism platform — Colston was on board covering the flotilla
 - r/Palestine (477pts/4cmts) — "I just blacked out. I couldn't handle it. It was so painful" — widely shared testimony

What It Means

Alex Colston's presence on the flotilla as a Zeteo contributor means the abuse testimonies have been documented from inside the detention by someone whose primary role is journalism. This adds weight to the abuse allegations and provides first-hand reporting capacity that other detained activists (who were primarily humanitarian workers) might not have.

Leigh Evans — Welsh Activist, Global Sumud Flotilla Ground Crew

Last updated: 25 May 2026

Detail	Info
Full name	Leigh Evans
Home town	Swansea, Wales
Occupation	Retired NHS nurse
Role	Ground crew / spokesperson for Global Flotilla Cymru. Previously detained on an earlier flotilla.
Organisation	Global Flotilla Cymru

Activism

Leigh Evans has been a prominent Welsh activist for the Palestinian cause, particularly visible through social media videos advocating for the people of Gaza.

- Retired NHS nurse from Swansea
- Was scheduled to join a subsequent wave of the flotilla after the initial vessels departed
- Flew the Welsh dragon flag in Palestinian colours — first saw the flag design from a Palestinian paramedic colleague while working in the West Bank

- Previously captured by Israeli forces on an earlier flotilla, giving her firsthand experience of the detention conditions

Key Quotes

“We are leaving the UK with the Dunkirk spirit to meet up with the French resistance. Unlike in Dunkirk, however, our governments are helping the fascist genocide. So it is up to us humanity to go with love in our hearts not bullets and bombs and try to lift the siege on Gaza.”

“I was captured by Israeli forces on the last flotilla, so I know how serious, and how frightening, the situation these two now face will be. The psychological trauma and uncertainty are immense, and the physical abuse they are subjected to is wholly unacceptable.”

“The seizure of unarmed civilians in international waters is a grave violation of human rights and sets a dangerous precedent. We call on the Foreign Secretary to act immediately to secure their release.”

Media Coverage
